LAND LEASE IN BLOEMENDHAL – ADJACENT TO COLOMBO PORT

EXCLUSIVE OPPORTUNITY FOR PORT-RELATED COMMERCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENTS IN COLOMBO

The Sri Lanka Ports Authority (SLPA) is offering a 35-year lease for 4 acres and 27.69 perches of prime land in the Bloemendhal area, adjacent to the Port of Colombo, for port-related commercial and industrial activities. This opportunity targets qualified investors to support the expansion of industries around one of South Asia's key maritime hubs. The land provides strategic access to the port for long-term business development.

It is true that Sri Lanka had to go through a temporary setback due to the forex inadequacy followed by socio-economic unrest experienced by the country. But, it is now on the right recovery path under the new administration with the overwhelming support of the international community including the IMF, World Bank, creditors and long-standing friendly nations.
